15. At all times material, Defendants own and/or manage and/or operate within a retail store located at 1981 Broadway New York City, NY 10023.

FACTS

16. Plaintiffs are long time customers of Defendant Apple Inc..
17. Plaintiff JOHNSTON owns the following products sold by Defendant Apple Inc.: IPAD,

MAC BOOK, Power MAC G-4, and an I-TOUCH.

18. Plaintiff CHARLES owns the following products sold by Defendant Apple Inc.: IPAD, IPOD, and a VIDEO IPOD.
19. On or about December 9, 2010, Plaintiffs visited Defendants' aforementioned retail store.
20. Plaintiffs were dressed in baggy jeans and large sweaters with hoods.
21. Plaintiffs were lawfully at Defendants' retail store.
22. Plaintiffs were at Defendants' retail store to purchase personal property.
23. Plaintiffs purchased headphones from Defendants' retail store.
24. Plaintiffs made their purchase in the basement of Defendants' retail store and proceeded upstairs.
25. At approximately 3:20 pm, Plaintiffs were standing on the entry level of the Defendants' retail store and were approached by one of Defendants' employees (believed to be a security guard) in khaki pants and a black shirt. Defendants' employee was a Caucasian male, in his 50's with salt and pepper hair, was about 6 feet and 2 inches tall, and weighed about 225 pounds.
26. Defendants' employee approached Plaintiffs in an intimidating fashion invading their personal space (coming within inches of Plaintiffs) and said, "You know the deal. You know the deal."
27. Defendants' employee told Plaintiffs, "Either you're here to see a Mac Specialist or to purchase something. If you are not doing either you have to leave the store."
28. Before the Plaintiffs could respond, Defendants' employee and responded, "And before you say I'm racially discriminating against you let me stop you. I am discriminating against you. I don't want "your kind" hanging out in the store."

29. Plaintiffs were shocked and humiliated at the racist remark made by Defendants' employee.
30. After Defendants' employee made the racist remark, Plaintiffs used their cell phones to record what transpired when another employee of Defendants approached Plaintiffs.
31. Defendants' employee then told Plaintiffs, "Now you have to go. If you want to know why, it's because I said so. CONSIDER ME GOD. You have to go."
32. Plaintiffs asked to speak to a manager to file a complaint. Defendants' Head of Security told Plaintiffs that there was no complaint to be made and walked away from the Plaintiffs, deliberately ignoring their request to see a manager.
33. Plaintiffs searched the retail store and found a manager. Before Plaintiffs could explain their situation to the manager, Defendants' Head of Security interjected and said, "I asked them if they needed a specialist."
34. Plaintiffs complained about the Defendants' employees' racial profiling and pointed out that none of the Caucasian customers were being approached by Defendants' employees or asked to leave.
35. In order to further harass, degrade, humiliate, and discriminate against Plaintiffs, the manager asked Defendant's Head of Security to call 911.
36. Defendants interfered with Plaintiffs right to purchase personal property because of their race.
37. Defendants' actions and conduct was intentional and intended to harm Plaintiffs.
38. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiffs felt extremely humiliated, degraded, victimized, embarrassed, ridiculed and emotionally distressed.
39. As a result of the Defendants' discriminatory and intolerable treatment of Plaintiffs, they suffered severe emotional distress.

40. As a result of the acts and conduct complained of herein, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and other non-pecuniary losses. Plaintiffs have further experienced severe emotional distress.
41. As a result of the above Plaintiffs have been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdiction limits of all lower Courts.
